THE TIMES VIRGINIAN We regret that our fight to keep the county paper at one dollar has been lost. The raise usual in May did not come, but of one-third in cost of paper last week forces us to follow the rule adopted by other county papers more than a year ago to $1.50 if paid in advance and $2 if not paid in advance. It simply means quit, or get the increased price for the paper. We want our paper in every home in the county and hope that our old friends will profiteering in the county paper. If we stay in business we must collect the price. Now is the time to pay up what you
